Course Overview

Start your rewarding career in Aged Care with All Health Training and become a job-ready Personal Care Assistant.

This qualification is designed for individuals working in community, home, or residential care settings. They operate within a multi-disciplinary team, under supervision and delegation. Their primary role is to deliver personalised support to individuals who may need assistance due to factors such as aging, disability, or other reasons.

Some tasks may include: assistance with personal hygiene, dressing and undressing, mobility support, meal preparation and feeding, monitoring vital signs, emotional and social support, assistance with activities of daily living (ADLs), cleaning, housekeeping and end-of-life care.

At All Health Training we're dedicated to inclusivity. We embrace access and equity principles, and we invite individuals with disabilities and from First Nations communities to apply. We believe in the strength of diversity and are here to support every learner in reaching their potential.
